

Leading Creditors' Rights Lawyer Joins Wyatt's Lexington Office

March 9, 2020 Wyatt, Tarrant & Combs, LLP is pleased to announce that Emily Cowles, noted as one of the "Top 50 Lawyers in Kentucky" and one of the "Top 25 Women Lawyers in Kentucky", by Kentucky Super Lawyers®, has joined the Firm's Lexington office as a partner. "We're thrilled to have Emily join our team here at Wyatt," said Craig Robertson, Partner in Charge of the Firm's Lexington office. He added "Emily is highly regarded by her peers in the legal community and by her clients, particularly in the banking and corporate sectors."

Ms. Cowles concentrates her practice in creditors' rights, all areas of finance and real estate law, civil litigation, business and corporate law, employment law, and equine law. Her work includes defense of lender liability issues and commercial litigation, residential and commercial real estate foreclosures, bankruptcy, and overall banking and creditor enforcement matters throughout Kentucky. Her clients include lenders, purchasers, sellers, dealerships and numerous businesses. She also has vast experience with handling general day-to-day issues for many of the small businesses she represents in various capacities, and is recognized by The Best Lawyers in America® for Mortgage Banking Foreclosure Law, 2017-2020 and for Real Estate Law in 2020. Ms. Cowles earned her B.A., cum laude from the University of Kentucky and her J.D. from Capital University Law School.
