

Wyatt's Cindy Young Named Chair of the Firm's Executive Committee

March 3, 2020. Wyatt is pleased to announce that Cindy Young has been named Chair of the Firm's Executive Committee. Ms. Young, a senior partner at Wyatt, has previously served as a member of the Firm's executive committee and as head of the Firm's Financial Institutions service group. The Firm's Executive Committee functions as a board of directors for the Firm. As Chair, Ms. Young will work closely with the Firm's managing partner, Franklin Jelsma, on matters related to strategic direction and governance. She is the first woman to serve as Chair of Wyatt's Executive Committee.

"Cindy has tremendous experience advising officers and directors of major corporations," said Jelsma, "she is a natural for this role. We look forward to her wisdom and guidance during the years ahead. Further, in addition to exceptional legal talent and business acumen, she is a good person who is well respected across the Firm."

In her Corporate & Securities practice, Ms. Young advises clients in the banking, health care and manufacturing sectors, and serves as the leader of the Firm's Financial Institutions service area. She has been recognized numerous times by Super Lawyers, Kentucky as one of the Top 50 Lawyers in Kentucky, and one of the Top 25 Women Lawyers in Kentucky. Best Lawyers has recognized her at various times as the "Lawyer of the Year" for the Louisville market in the areas of Securities/Capital Markets Law, Banking and Finance Law, Financial Services Regulation Law, and Corporate Law. Ms. Young received her law degree from the Brandeis School of Law at the University of Louisville, summa cum laude, where she was the valedictorian.
