BRICKER GRAYDON WYATT LLP FORMED AS COMBINATION IS COMPLETED

January 5, 2026 - Columbus, Ohio -- Bricker Graydon Wyatt LLP is proud to announce its formation following the successful merger of Bricker Graydon LLP and Wyatt, Tarrant & Combs LLP. This union brings together two leading regional law firms with deep roots in Ohio, Kentucky, and beyond - creating one of the largest and most comprehensive legal service providers in the region.

The combined firm unites more than 325 attorneys across 14 offices in four states, offering expanded capabilities and resources to better serve clients and communities. Bricker Graydon Wyatt LLP will maintain all existing offices, spanning major markets including Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton, Lexington, Louisville, Nashville, Memphis, Southeast Ohio, and Southern Indiana.

Bricker Graydon Wyatt LLP will offer legal services across more than 20 practice areas and key industries such as real estate, health care, energy, education, construction, and manufacturing. This merger strengthens existing capabilities in litigation, M&A, estate planning, and complex public sector representations.

While the merger is official, a combined website will launch later in 2026. For now, please continue to visit each firm's respective website for information and resources:
